

Don Oberhelman

Summary of Qualifications

EDUCATION

MASTER OF SCIENCE – ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATION
Florida State University

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE – BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION
Kansas State University

EXPERIENCE

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY

Senior Associate Athletic Director/Chief Operating Officer

February 2007 – present

- Responsible for the daily operation of the athletic department
- Set and evaluate all performance goals
- Determine resource allocation within department
- Identify external support opportunities
- Supervise department heads
- Serve as budget authority for the department
- Establish operational objectives
- Speak at campus, foundation, and alumni functions

THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI

Senior Associate Athletic Director

February 2002 – February 2007

- Established operational policies and procedures
- Supervised Student Academic Enhancement Program
- Supervised strength and conditioning, sports medicine, compliance
- Supervised men's basketball
- Promoted from original post of Associate Athletic Director for Compliance and Student Services

TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

Education Coordinator

July 1998 – February 2002

- Maintained NCAA educational program
- Developed the most comprehensive compliance website in the country
- Disseminated NCAA and Big XII information to staff

FLORIDA STATE UNIVERSITY

Compliance Assistant

November 1995 – July 1998

- Monitored countable contests, playing and practice seasons
- Designed agent registration program and “Agent Day”
- Researched early entry into draft and salary information

LEADERSHIP

Member of NCAA Legislative Review and Interpretations Committee
Completed the Division I-A Athletic Director Institute
Instructor in the Southern Miss Sport Management graduate program
Completed the Texas A&M Leadership Institute